To Whom it May Concern: Talent Aquisition, Hiring Manager

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my strong interest in a position of creative executive within the arts and entertainment industry. I am hopeful that my extensive experience will make me a perfect fit for a role and with over 20 years, I have consistently demonstrated my ability to create impactful and innovative content.

As a multi-award-winning producer, executive and artist, I have successfully delivered and coordinated content globally to various mediums, including Radio, Film, and Television Markets. My work has garnered multiple recognitions, including Billboard charts, RadioAwards, and Grammy Nominations. Throughout my career, I have had the opportunity to collaborate with high-profile artist such as Cher, Annie Lennox, Clay Walker, Patti Austin, Peter Gabriel, Stewart Copeland, Ricky Kej, amongst others and to participate in global humanitarian events with the United Nations, the United Nations World Relief Agency, Project Peace On Earth, World Peace Day, Christmas in Bethlehem and others. I have also sucessfully collaborated individuals both nationally and internationally.

One of my key strengths is my ability to build and nurture a talent pipeline and foster collaborations to support business growth. I have a strong work ethic, exceptional interpersonal skills, strong communication skills and a visionary mindset that enables me to adapt to new challenges and thrive in team-based and independent settings. Additionally, my educational background in Liberal Arts, Fine & Decorative Arts, Music Business, Arts Administration, and Music Therapy further enhances my understanding of both the Arts and Entertainment worlds and its evolving needs. I am hopeful that my skills in verbal and written communications, strategic brand management, production operations, and content creation align perfectly with a position available. I am eager to bring my passion, adaptability, and education to a position and to contribute to your continues success. I have attached my resume for your review and I welcome the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further and to interview. I can be reached at 615.397.4857 or seaymusic@gmail.com

Very Sincerely,
Seay Harshaw Delgado "Seay"
