SERAPHIM is the Ambient/New Age song collection, that guides listeners through spacious textures, rhythmic movement, with music that blends elements of piano, voices and vocal chant, with atmospheric synths and orchestration. Cinematic moments rise and fall throughout, adding depth and drama, like angel's taking flight, flickering across a luminescent and shifting terrain. collaboration of special instrumentalists, featuring Seay's voice, vocals and compositions, these beautiful pieces explore the dance between light and dark, the wonder of celestial events and the journey of embracing life's challenges. Seay created this collection of songs, inspired from her own personal life passages. Discover a deeper meaning behind what it means to feel and trust the journey. Seraphim was also created in immersive Dolby Atmos as cinematic experience for the listener.

From the dramatic opener "Aether" touching the heavenly realm, epic otherworldly "Nara" and "Antissa", the poignant message of "Angel", ambient "Canticle Of The Sun", the song of longing and remembrance "When We Touch", and eternal light within, "Lux Aeterna", SERAPHIM, gifts the listener with a sacred journey exploring some of the world's unusual languages in ancient Aramaic, Latin/ Gregorian Chant, incorporating chosen words of "Light". "Canticle Of The Sun" (Cantus Solis), The 800 year old Gregorian inspired Latin chant of Saint Francis of Assisi reminds of the sacredness of all living things. Selected tracks are english lyrical expressions, while the others highlight the voice, as an instrument alongside, piano and performances from Flutists Wouter Kellerman, Ron Korb, Suzanne Teng, Harpist Peter Sterling, Sitarist David Vito Gregoli, Percussionist Gilbert Levy, Bassists Jerry Watts Jr, and Charles "Chazz" Frichtel, Cellist Martha Reich, pianist orchestrator, Geoff Koch, the Infinito Strings of the Ukraine, 2 Bonus instrumental versions "Nara" and "Canticle of The Sun". Mixed in Dolby Atmos by Jeff Silverman of Palette Music. Bonus mixes from Grammy Winning mix engineers Bill Hare and Brian Vibberts and engineered and arranged by Seay and Jules Delgado of Illumination Music Studio, in Nashville, Tennessee, USA
